“My name is Leon Feingold, and I co-founded the House of Good Deeds in 2017 with the love of my life, Yuanyuan Wang. We met in Shanghai in 2012 when she hosted me for one night as a couch surfer, and I returned the favor later that year when she visited NYC. We dated seriously through 2015 and 2016, and at the end of 2016 I proposed.

Two days later, she was diagnosed with terminal cancer. We were completely overwhelmed.....

EVERY MAN MUST DECIDE WHETHER HE WILL WALK IN THE
LIGHT OF CREATIVE ALTRUISM
OR IN THE DARKNESS OF DESTRUCTIVE SELFISHNESS.

Like the great Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., the House of Good Deeds has a vision. We are inspired to create a more sustainable and equitable future for all.

Our 10 Principles

Self-Reliance

Seek answers first within yourself, then within your world.

Self-Improvement

What do we each really want and need? What are our strengths and weaknesses? Discover your truths, live them honestly and openly, and be better every day

Inclusion

All are welcome to listen, learn, and practice Altruism in their manner of choosing.

Welcome our new Intern!

Hello! My name is Jeremy Werner and I am the communications intern for the House of Good Deeds for the fall of 2020. I was born and raised in New York City and recently graduated from Ithaca College with a B.A. in writing with a minor in theater. I spend my free time working on various projects, talking with my friends, or singing along to various karaoke tracks from my favorite musicals. My goal as an intern for HoGD is to really refurbish our online presence, while also acting as a new point of contact for any organizations that wish to partner with us. It is my hope that by November we will have built a large web of organizations helping make the world a better place. For anything HOGD related email me at: jeremy@houseofgooddeeds.org
